Message from Father Tim

Dear Parishioners and Friends, First, May I thank you for the ways in which you made Pentecost Sunday special.

I am writing this message from Lourdes during the annual Birmingham Diocesan pilgrimage in the south of France.

Lourdes is a place where those who are sick or live with any disability are the most important in a place associated with healing.

*We have celebrated the Sacrament of Reconciliation, the Anointing of the Sick, and we have taken part in the daily processions of the Blessed Sacrament and the evening Rosary Procession where each person carries a candle and they are all raised in prayer as the whole gathering honours Our Lady with the song Ave, ave, ave Maria.
I have prayed for our parish and school community and for your families and all your intentions at the Grotto.*
