For all the fathers, grandfathers and great-grandfathers, we bring you especially into our prayers and hearts as we wish you a Happy Father's Day. On this day we celebrate and thank God for our Dads who have been there to guide us through the milestones of our lives, protected us when we have felt afraid or unsure, and have been an important part of our faith formation.

Message from Father Tim .....

*Dear Parishioners and Friends,
Happy Patronal Feast of the Sacred Heart to you all. It is my privilege to be Parish Priest of this parish, this beautiful church and this dedication to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.
This past week, our Auxiliary Bishop, Stephen Wright, has been appointed Diocesan Bishop of Hexham and Newcastle in the North East of England. We congratulate Bishop Stephen on his appointment and we assure him of our prayers. We pray for the children of our primary school who will be making their First Holy Communion at the 10.15am Mass next Sunday. Following on from the Feast of Corpus Christi, it is a reminder to all of us of what a precious gift the Eucharist is, and the care with which we must receive Holy Communion week by week.*
