CONGRATULATIONS and Well Done to the children who received their First Holy Communion last Sunday. It was a very special day in the life of our parish, and it was wonderful to see so many in our beautiful church. Thank you to the teachers, parents, grandparents and all who contributed in any way to this very important occasion in the faith journey of the children.

Please continue to support the children by keeping them in your prayers. May their relationship with Jesus grow stronger as they continue their journey with Him.

Message from Father Tim

*Dear Parishioners and Friends,
This Sunday (2nd July) I shall be at St Mary's College, Oscott, our Seminary – House of Formation for the Priesthood, for the Ordination as Deacon of Ambrose Chou, whom many will recognise from Sunday Mass here in our parish over the past couple of years. We congratulate Ambrose and we pray for him as he enters his final year of Priestly Formation for the Diocese of Portsmouth.*

This is also the last weekend of the Seminary Year and we are grateful to the other seminarians who come to us, week by week. Remember that you are part of their formation. Coming to our parish is not just about being visitors, but for you to get to know them and shape them.

We pray for Deacon Godlove who completes his time at Oscott and returns to the Diocese of Shrewsbury. Let us keep him in our prayers as he prepares for Priestly Ordination in September.

Dates for the Diary
