Message from Father Tim

Dear Parishioners and Friends,

Last Sunday I tested positive for Covid and so have had an enforced retreat from duties all week. These things remind us that we are not always in control and that we are dispensable. I am grateful to the parish team for keeping things going and for priests stepping in for the extra Masses last Sunday afternoon and Monday evening.

I had time to watch the Pope's Prayer Vigil from Rome (from 30th Sept) in which the main music was from the Taize community in France. It is beautifully simple and can be sung in many different languages. If you've never heard Taize music, search for In the Lord, I'll be ever thankful; Stay here and keep watch and pray; Adoremus te, Domine.

Best wishes and prayers,

Fr Tim
